

October 31, 1968

Chester H. Luke

Chester H. Luke, 74, of rural Bath, died Tuesday night at St. Luke's Hospital, Aberdeen.

Services were held at 10 a. m., at the Huobl Chapel in Aberdeen, Friday, October 25, with the Rev. K. Oliver Brekke, Groton, officiating. Burial was in Sunset Memorial Gardens.

Robert E. Olson was soloist and Mrs. John Evens, organist.

Honorary pall bearers were R. D. Hughes, Arvid Hartberg, Adolph Larson and Jack Fritz, all of Bath; Clarence Larson, Aberdeen and Maurice Nygaard, Houghton.

Active pall bearers were Raymond Hughes, Myles Beckler, Lyle Fritz, Robert Sharp and Charles Fulker, all of Bath; and Eldon Beckler, Aberdeen.

Mr. Luke was born July 4, 1894 in Gem Township. He attended Northern Normal for two years. He married Mary Schott in Aberdeen on Sept. 9, 1916. They farmed in the Bath vicinity all their married life.

Mr. Luke served on the FHA board for two years and was a township supervisor for 16 years. He retired from farming in 1961.

Survivors besides his widow are a son, Vernon of rural Bath; one brother, Arthur of Akron, Ohio; a sister, Mrs. Emil (Edna) zum Brunnen, Aberdeen and two grandchildren.